10 Days and 7 Nights Greece Trip

Greece has the longest coastline in Europe and is the southernmost country in Europe. The mainland has rugged mountains, forests and lakes, but the country is famous for its thousands of islands, bordered by the blue Aegean Sea to the east, the Mediterranean Sea to the south and the Ionian Sea to the west.

Corinth Canal

Connecting the Gulf of Corinth with the Saronic Gulf in the Aegean Sea. It crosses the narrow isthmus of Corinth, the Peloponnese and mainland Greece.

Rio Antonia Bridge

Also known as Charilaos Trikoupis Bridge. One of the longest multi-span cable-stayed bridges in the world, the longest fully suspended.

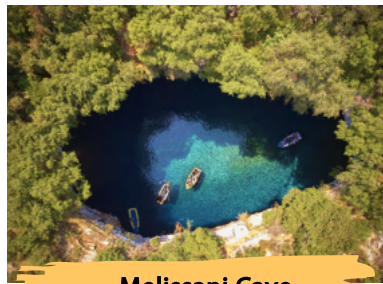

Navagio beach

The site of a famous 1980 shipwreck, in suspension resting on the sandy beach posed by the cliff. This is a Exposed bay in Ionia.

Blue Cave

The most celebrated attraction of the Greek island of Kastellorizo. The cave lies on the southeast coast of the island.

Melissani Cave

One of the most significant places for tourists to visit. Surprisingly, there is a lake inside the cave that has trees and forests surrounding it.

Argostoli

Capital of Kefalonia with a population of 14,000 inhabitants. Argostoli stands on the far end of the natural bay surrounded by mountains and verdant forests.

Santorini

Perfect stop in Greece. From beaches, to wineries, and hiking trails the island has something for everyone.

Thera

Also known as the Caldera of Fate, or now known as Santorini, is a Greek island located in the southern Aegean Sea.

Kamari beach

One of the longest beaches on the island and is very popular, it's mainly black sand or pebbles in some areas.
